

Galten post office at the west coast of Sørøya in Finmark was established in March 1861 to serve this small settlement and arriving fishermen off the coast during the seasonal fisheries in spring and early summer. The mail was sent by a foot-and-boat branch mail service from Hammerfest. A year-round mail service was established in 1872

4 Sk Oscar with postal manuscript "Galten 13-6-62"

3 Sk post horn with postal manuscript "Galten 15-6-7?"

Official free-letter from Galten to Tromsø; postal manuscript "Galten 13-6-62" on reverse, transit postmarked "HAMMERFEST 19-6-1862" (type 2)

Domestic letter dated February 2, 1877 (inside), from Galten to Trondheim; tied with 3 Sk post horn cancelled with pen strike; front of cover with postal manuscript "Galten 2-2"